An independent Christian day school for girls and boys aged 2 to 11 years.

This is an exciting opportunity to be part of our new specialist service that we are creating within the school for children with autism or other related difficulties. The post holder will be working as part of a team, delivering an individual education programme, based on the scientific theory of Applied Behaviour Analysis (Verbal Behaviour). You will be working with the teacher, consultant, supervisors and therapists to deliver a programme that will enable the learner to overcome barriers to learning and achieve their full potential.

The post holder will demonstrate a commitment to working collaboratively within the organisational procedures of a Christian independent school.

The post holder should have an:

- Understanding of 2015 SEND CoP
- Teaching or tutoring qualifications NVQ Level 2 or 3 in relevant field, RBT or Psychology Qualifications
- Experience of working with children in formal or informal settings
- A valid enhanced DBS disclosure (within the last 12 months)

Grangewood Independent School is committed to the protection and safeguarding of children and will therefore carry out all safer recruitment checks.
